FRIDAY- SUNDAY

Demonstrations will take place in the Open Studio.

Artist demonstrations are scheduled nonstop throughout the show. Artists representing local schools, guilds, and organizations are on-site and working on projects in glass, clay, fiber, and metal. Stop by to observe, ask questions, and learn about the hands-on classes and workshops offered at each organization. We are delighted to have artists representing the Georgia Association of Woodturners, Atlanta Art Worx, Callanwolde Fine Arts Center, Southeast Fiber Arts Alliance, and Siyeh Glass Studio.

Siyeh Glass

Siyeh Glass is an intimate urban studio in the heart of Atlanta's East Lake neighborhood, opened in 2008 by Brenda Griffith, glass artist and author of A Beginner's Guide to Kiln-Formed Glass. It offers small classes, private lessons, and "glass dates" in kiln-forming, glassblowing, glass casting, and torchwork. It also has a full range of equipment available for use on your own projects in our open studio. Siyeh Glass is a Bullseye Kiln Glass Resource Center, a Delphi Elite Dealer, and an Olympic Kilns authorized distributor.

Atlanta Art Worx

Atlanta Art Worx Jewelry and Metal Arts Center offers students an authentic, working metalsmithing studio experience where they can learn and perfect their skills in silversmithing and other aspects of jewelry/metal arts. As a studio dedicated to jewelry and metal arts, their focus is strictly on silversmithing and other techniques and skills centered on working with metal. The cozy studio offers a place to foster creativity and imagination, collaborate, and create magnificent art. With a low student-teacher ratio, classes offer personal attention and one-on-one instruction. Private lessons are also available to accommodate different learning styles and schedules.

Southeast Fiber Arts Alliance (SEFAA)

SEFAA is a collaboration of people who express themselves creatively using fiber materials and techniques to produce fine arts and crafts. The newly opened SEFAA Center teaches and displays all fiber art forms, inspires and supports individuals and fiber art organizations, and engages the public to learn more about the fiber arts. Take a class, take in an exhibition, rent space for your own fiber-related activity – it's all possible at the SEFAA Center.

The Georgia Association of Woodturners

The Georgia Association of Woodturners (GAW) is a chapter of the American Association of Woodturners and is dedicated to providing education, information, and organization to people interested in woodturning. GAW serves residents of the Atlanta metro area. The club meets on the third Thursday of each month from 6:30 to 9 p.m. at Highland Woodworking, 1045 N. Highland Ave NE in Virginia Highlands. Meetings are open to all. Each meeting includes an extended demonstration of an aspect of woodturning.

Callanwolde Fine Arts Center

A nonprofit community arts center, Callanwolde offers classes and workshops for all ages in visual, literary, and performing arts in a magnificent Gothic/Tudor-style mansion. Special performances, gallery exhibits, outreach programs, and fundraising galas are presented throughout the year. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, Callanwolde's combination of history, architecture, and art education makes it one of the most unusual art centers in the country.

Awards of Excellence Walking Tour

Meet at the Council Booth

The American Craft Council will bestow Awards of Excellence to four artists at the Atlanta show. Three recipients will receive awards recognizing the outstanding quality of their work, while one exhibitor will be recognized for booth design. We're thrilled to have Matt Moulthrop as our juror for this year's American Craft Council show in Atlanta. Moulthrop is a third-generation woodturner working out of Moulthrop Studios in Marietta, Ga. His work is in the collection of several prominent institutions across the United States.

JOIN THE AMERICAN CRAFT COUNCIL TODAY!

The American Craft Council is a nonprofit educational membership organization with an important mission: to champion craft.

We invite you to join the thousands of members and donors who help us celebrate the remarkable achievements of America's gifted artists working in clay, fiber, glass, metal, wood, and other materials – and become a member or donor today.

Our programs explore and celebrate craft's relevance, connections, enrichment, and value to our world. By promoting craft to an ever-expanding network, we ensure that the art of the handmade continues to thrive as a vibrant part of our lives today and for future generations.

ACC's work impacts the lives of artists, students, collectors, scholars, gallery owners, and enthusiasts across all fields of craft through:

- Juried shows in Baltimore, Atlanta, St. Paul and San Francisco, where we connect 50,000 craft aficionados with 2,000 artist makers.
- Workshops, seminars, conferences, and salon-style presentations with craft luminaries and working artists from a variety of disciplines.
- The award-winning American Craft magazine, available in print and online versions, connecting craft artists with appreciative audiences.
- Our prestigious ACC awards program honoring artists for outstanding achievement and leadership in the craft field.
- ACC's Library, with 14,000 books, magazines, and archives, now available online to enquiring minds, anywhere, anytime, through My Portable Museum.

SCHOOL-TO-MARKET

The American Craft Council's School-to-Market program is designed to bridge the gap between the craft curriculum in higher education and the marketplace by providing undergraduate students a more public venue for a curated, collective exhibition of their work.

The Council partners with educational institutions to provide students with a unique exposure to the craft audience, through which they can gain insight about how to present themselves and their work in the craft marketplace.

This year we are proud to host the work of students from the Savannah College of Art and Design (SCAD) at our shows in Baltimore and Atlanta.
