

American Craft Council's Baltimore wholesale show 2016

Each year, our goal at the Baltimore wholesale show is to offer you a wide range of well-designed, reasonably priced, high-quality craft.

Here are some measures we've taken to ensure 2016 is our best show yet:

- While ACC's focus is always on quality, we have worked to identify artists who have a wide range of price points to create a destination show that allows you to address all of your purchasing needs.
- Once again we have partnered with globalDESIGN to showcase their exceptional jewelry designers.
- This catalogue, which features a listing for each show artist, is sent to many buyers prior to the show and is posted online to be used as a valuable tool year-round to connect with artists and place orders.
- This year's registered buyers will enjoy these benefits: FREE access to all of ACC's craft shows across the country — an opportunity for you to connect with more artists who also sell wholesale; discounted membership ($29) to the American Craft Council; and special incentives available only in Baltimore.

I invite you to browse this catalogue and marvel at the array of mediums, techniques, and aesthetics at the 2016 show!

Chris Amundsen

Executive Director
American Craft Council

P.S. We welcome your feedback about improvements for our future wholesale shows at accnews@craftcouncil.org.

Wholesale show dates/times

Saturday, February 20, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m.
Sunday, February 21, 11 a.m. – 5 p.m.

HIP POP

Location: Throughout the show floor

As you make your way through the aisles, be sure to check out the shared booth spaces dotting the show floor. Each pod features six emerging artists. You'll find contemporary pieces, from sophisticated elegance to cutting edge, at a variety of price points. Look for the pink and black Hip Pop logo for these fresh finds.
